IROQUOIS ARRIVED AT MIDWAY ISLAND

Lieutenant Slattery received a cable yesterday from Midway Island, stating that the beacon light had been completed.

This means that the U. S. S. Iroquois arrived safely, as she had the lantern for the new light aboard. The Iroquois left here last Friday.

The message was sent by Foreman Ray, who, with a gang of carpenters, went to Midway Island to erect the wooden structure for the light.

DID NOT DROWN.

About noon time yesterday Joe Fern, foreman of the Kinau wharf, was startled to see a Korean plunge over the end of the wharf into the harbor. Fern rushed to the spot and jumping into a boat, reached for the would-be suicide with a boat hook. The man was pulled out not much the worse for his experience. He made a second attempt to leap into the harbor, and was placed in the hands of the police. At the police station the Korean, whose name is Im Poon Wah, was stripped and his clothes hung out on a line to dry. He will be allowed only a limited quantity of clothes to wear as it is feared he may again try to kill himself by the strangling method. The Korean explains his action on the ground that he owed another Korean $75 and did not have the wherewithal to pay it, and as he was constantly dunned, he decided to get rid of the debt and the dunner by ending his life.

BROWN'S SUCCESSOR.

Past Assistant Paymaster I. T. Hagner, U. S. N., will succeed Paymaster Brown at the Naval Station. Paymaster Hagner is now at Mare Island navy yard and will arrive here about the middle of October. Paymaster Brown, who has been assigned as assistant to the general naval storekeeper at Cavite, P. I., may leave on the Coptic, October 27, or on the Siberia early in November. Mr. Haskett, clerk to Paymaster Brown, will not accompany the latter to Cavite.

CURTIS THREW THEM DOWN.

The Miowera arrived yesterday morning from the Colonies, the trip being uneventful, and continued on her voyage to Victoria and Vancouver at 6 p. m. The vessel is carrying a large shipment of sugar from Fiji. Among the through passengers is Col. Rupert Carrington, brother of General Carrington of Boer war fame. Princess Chingilla, the Cheyenne Indian maiden, who, with others, comprised the theatrical troupe which was here under the management of M. B. Curtis, returned from Auckland, sadder and wiser, for Curtis threw them down hard. Curtis has no engagements whatever for the troupe in New Zealand. The troupe managed to get tickets back home. At Taviuni the vessel was held for three hours while a search was made for Curtis, who had disappeared. The company, or individual members, won't do a thing to Curtis if they come across him. It seems to be the same old story, however, as far as Curtis is concerned.

A-H. SCHEDULE.

Changes have been made in the American-Hawaiian S. S. schedule as follows: The Alaskan will sail, from New York for Honolulu on October 3, and the Texan in November. The Nevada will sail from San Francisco for Honolulu direct on October 7 and the Nebraska on October 28. From Honolulu to San Francisco the Nebraska will next sail on September 26 and the Nevada on October 17. From Seattle and Tacoma via San Francisco for Honolulu the Nebraska will sail on October 15 and the Nevada on November 5.

ALAMEDA OFF FOR COAST.

The Alameda departed shortly after ten a. m. yesterday for San Francisco, with a large crowd of passengers, most of whom resembled human flower gardens. The Kawaihau Glee Club, comprising the pick of the Hawaiian singers, left for the Coast, where they have engagements, both in San Francisco and in Portland, after which they expect to go on an eastern tour.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The steamer J. A. Cummins arrived last evening from Koolau.
George Cullen, Immigration inspector, accompanied by Mrs. Cullen, left in the Alameda yesterday for San Francisco.

The oil cargo steamer Rosecrans arrived from the Coast yesterday, bringing a cargo of crude oil for the Pacific Oil Transportation Co.

AMATEUR OF SLANG.

It is said that Emperor William has a choice collection of American slang words, which he uses like a Yankee born and bred. President Buller of Columbia, was Emperor William's guest at a breakfast at Wilhelmshohe recently, and was rather astonished at his frequent use of colloquialisms.—Argonaut.

The woman with homely features will not lack attractiveness if her head is crowned with an abundance of beautiful hair. But, on the other hand, the finest contour of female face loses much of its attractiveness if the hair is scanty or looks diseased. The dandruff microbe causes dull, brittle or lustreless hair with later dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. Newbro's Herpicide destroys this enemy of beauty and permits the hair to grow as nature intended. A delightful hair dressing. Gives wonderful results. No oil or dye.

FULLERTON MAKES CHARGE

ment to McStocker's motion against an extension of time Mr. Cooke said he would let the small shareholders decide the question, throwing his votes with those of the majority.

"When the vote was taken there were 3562—not 3652 as that report has it—for McStocker's motion and 3040 against it.
"Mr. Lesser and I, however, protested against the voting of the 1200 shares of the Kapiolani Estate.
"Mr. Cooke allowed the protest, which left the vote 2362 against 3040, yet, notwithstanding his promise, he voted the proxies for the motion and declared it carried."

MR. COOKE'S STATEMENT.

Joseph P. Cooke, on being informed of Mr. Fullerton's grievance against him, gave an Advertiser reporter a clear account of his action. It daily contradicts the statement that Mr. Cooke allowed the protest against the Kapiolani Estate shares, besides otherwise putting an entirely different face on the matter to that which Mr. Fullerton does. Incidentally, it may be mentioned, the evening paper was inaccurate in saying Mr. Cooke was in the chair and in giving the sum of his proxies as 11,000 instead of 19,000 shares. Mr. Cooke's statement here follows:

"When the vote of the stockholders present at the meeting was declared to be 3562 for Mr. McStocker's motion granting the extension to 3040 against it, Mr. Fullerton rose and protested against the Kapiolani Estate voting their 1200 shares for the motion. He claimed that as they had not paid all of their assessments in cash, they were not bona fide stockholders and not entitled to vote.

"I disagreed with him absolutely and stated that, in my opinion, their stock had been paid for in full by the notes that were given by the Estate, and therefore that they were entitled to vote just as much as any stockholder present.

"I said further, however, that whether they were legally entitled to vote or not did not affect me in arriving at my decision. When I stated that I would be guided by the majority vote of those stockholders present, the spirit of my statement was that I would be guided by the majority vote of those present irrespective of any legal technicalities such as Mr. Fullerton brought forward.

"Therefore, the vote of the stockholders, as I looked at it, was 3562 to 3040. In accordance with that vote and with my promise, I voted all the proxies that I held, over 19,000 shares, with the majority.

"I may say further that, since the Kihel meeting, I have taken the best of legal advice and have ascertained that the Kapiolani Estate were entitled to vote at that meeting. Therefore, the true vote of the stockholders at the meeting was 3562 to 3040 as already stated."
